Rev. Lucien Clarke, the new presiding elder of the Washington district; Rev. J. F. Heisse, pastor, and Rev. J. W. Steele, assistant pastor of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, with their wives, were given a re-ception in the lecture room of Wesley Chapel last night. The room was elaborately decorated with growing palms and cut flowers, the national colors also being conspicuous in the adornment.

After a short musical program and a welcome from the president of the Epworth welcome from the president of the Epworth League and the Sunday school superintendent, respectively, Mr. A. B. Duvall extended a hearty welcome upon the part of the official board of the church. Responses were made by Drs. Clarke, Heisse and Steele, in the order named. Refreshments were then served, and the pleasant evening ended by a cordial handshake from the 300 or more persons present, each wishing their pastors a year of success.

Rev. J. F. Heisse is entering upon his fourth year as pastor at Wesley, and Rev. J. W. Steele serves the New York Avenue Church, which is under the care of Wesley Chapel.

The Gridiron Club is apt to do the unusual thing. It is one of the characteristics of that famous organization to surprise its friends-and even itself. It will do that Saturday evening, when the closing dinner of the season will be given at the Arling ton. It has developed to such a degree that it promises to be the leading event in the calendar of the club for the present season,

The responses of members have been very general, and they have also notified Mr. R. L. Fearn, the secretary of the club, of their intention of bringing guests with them. The latter list now includes an array of distinguished names. As this is presidential year the opportunities for the exercise of some of the gifts of the club in the line of political satire are numerous, and no doubt will be fully utilized.

doubt will be fully utilized.

Eighteen or twenty of the officers and prominent members of the Lotos Club of New York city will come over to attend the dinner as guests of the home club, thus giving the members of the latter organization a chance to return the hospitality which was so pleasantly enjoyed by the Gridironers when they went to New York a couple of months ago as guests of the Lotos Club.

MONTGOMERY. In tender, reverent remembrance of Prof. HENRY P. MONTGOMERY, who passed from death unto life April 26, 1899. "Gentle his heart was As the light of the stars in June, And sparkling his mind As they; Filling the earth with a brightness Cheering the soul, And sweet to sit under, And sweet to sit under, Feeling its glow and its gladness; His were the words That encouraged;

That encouraged;
His was the spirit
That led up from darkness
Into the light,
Into the sunshine of living;
Never a shadow he cast
Uniti in his passing
Out of the world
He left it gloomy without him,
All that he was we remember;
All that he is, Ged knows,
And the angels."

PROCTOR. In loving remembrance of our deal husband and father, Rev. JOHN F. PROCTOR, who died nine years ago today—April 26, 1884. BY HIS WIFE, SARAH E. PROCTOR, AND DAUGHTER, ADA W. AUKARD.

Ah, vacant is the fireside chair,
The smile that won is no longer there;
From door and hall, from porce and lawn,
The echo of that voice is gone,
And we who linger only know
How much was lost two years ago.

BY HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

SHORTER. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, MARY SHORTER, who died fourteen years ago today, April 28, 1886. Gone, but not forgotten.
